East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors Meeting for July 2019

The East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District (EMSWCD), which serves all of Multnomah County east of the Willamette River, will hold its regular Board of Directors meeting for the month of July 2019 at the Native American Youth and Family Center (NAYA) 5135 NE Columbia Blvd. Portland, OR 97218. This meeting is open to the public and all persons interested in the work of EMSWCD are invited to attend.

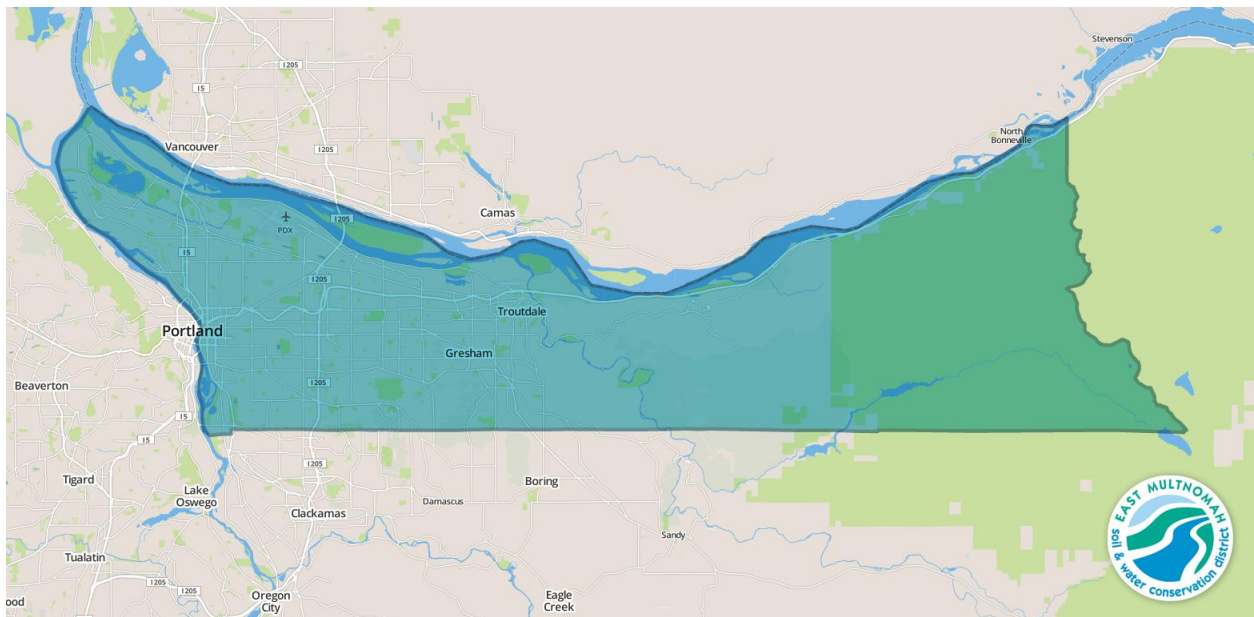

The July Board Meeting is scheduled for 6:00 PM on Monday, July 8th. Agenda items include: NAYA presentation, Equity Team update, discussion on the appointment of an Interim Executive Director and search for an Executive Director, the EMSWCD Annual Work Plan for Fiscal Year 2019-20, Public Records and Retention Policy, May 2019 Financial Report, a rural cost-share project request, Headwaters Farm solar PV project procurement, an Executive Session under ORS 192.355 to be held to consider information that is exempt from public records laws and an Executive Session under ORS 192.660(2)(e) to deliberate with persons designated to negotiate real property transactions. More agenda items may be added later in the week; please visit our website at <https://emswcd.org/about/board/meetings/> to find an updated agenda.

Meeting attendees requiring Americans with Disabilities Act accommodation should call (503) 222-7645 x 116 no later than 7/3/2019.

The East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District (EMSWCD) is a unit of local government whose mission is to help people care for land and water. The EMSWCD is led by an elected board of five directors and works entirely on a voluntary, non-regulatory basis with landowners, land managers, and other residents east of the Willamette River centerline in Multnomah County. All of the EMSWCD’s work is geared toward keeping water clean, conserving water and keeping soil healthy.
